

The House Committee on Judiciary offers the following substitute to HB 960:

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT

To amend Chapter 61 of Title 36 of the Official Code of Georgia Annotated, the "Urban Redevelopment Law," so as to provide for a moratorium upon the exercise of the power of eminent domain for purposes of urban development; to provide for exceptions; to provide a statement of legislative findings and a statement of intent; to provide for conflicts; to provide for severability; to provide for an effective date; to repeal conflicting laws; and for other purposes.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF GEORGIA:

SECTION 1.

The General Assembly makes the following findings:

(1) The protection of homes, small businesses, and other private property rights against government seizures and other unreasonable government interference is a fundamental principle and core commitment of our nation's founders;

(2) It is the desire of the General Assembly and the Governor of this state to prevent municipalities, local governments, and all other entities with the power of eminent domain from infringing on the private property rights of landowners; and

(3) It is the intention of the General Assembly and the Governor of the State of Georgia to enact legislation during the 2006 legislative session to restrict the application of the United States Supreme Court's decision in Kelo v. City of New London, Connecticut to private property owners in Georgia.

SECTION 2.

Chapter 61 of Title 36 of the Official Code of Georgia Annotated, the "Urban Redevelopment Law," is amended by inserting at the end thereof a new Code section to read as follows:

1 "36-61-20.

2 (a) There is imposed a moratorium upon all boards, commissions, departments, divisions,
3 offices, bodies, and other units of a municipality or county, agencies or urban
4 redevelopment agencies, downtown development authorities, and local government bodies
5 from exercising the power of eminent domain provided for in this chapter.

6 (b) During the term of the moratorium the power of eminent domain granted to an entity
7 identified under subsection (a) of this Code section shall not be exercised in conjunction
8 with an urban redevelopment area, urban redevelopment plan, or urban redevelopment
9 project as authorized under the "Urban Redevelopment Law," and the moratorium shall not 10 be applicable to construction of utilities.

11 (c) The provisions of subsections (a) and (b) of this Code section shall apply to all
12 proposed, pending, and future condemnations and shall remain in effect for a period of 90
13 days from the date this Code section becomes effective or until such time as the General
14 Assembly repeals this Code section, whichever occurs first."

15 SECTION 3.

16 In the event of a conflict between this Act and an existing statute or provision, this Act shall
17 control. This Act shall be strictly construed to protect the private property rights of residents
18 and businesses over the interests of local governments.

19 SECTION 4.

20 If any part of this Act is determined to be unconstitutional, all other parts shall remain in 21 effect.

22 SECTION 5.

23 This Act shall become effective upon its approval by the Governor or upon its becoming law
24 without such approval.

25 SECTION 6.

26 All laws and parts of laws in conflict with this Act are repealed.
